Systems to Promote Achievement of Work–Life Balance (Examples)		(Programs that surpass legal requirements)
System	Overview
Childcare leave	Can be taken until the day the child turns two years old (or the day before the child's birthday).
Childcare support	Available until March 31 of the year in which the child completes sixth grade. In addition to shorter working hours, includes exemption from overtime and late-night work.
Childbirth leave for male employees	Male employees can take up to five days of paid leave when their wife gives birth.
Flextime system	Normal working hours are determined not on a daily basis but on a monthly basis.
Child-rearing flextime system	Up to March 31 of the year in which the child completes sixth grade, core time can be adjusted in line with child-rearing circumstances.
Provision of support funds for childbirth and childcare	Provision of ¥200,000 at the birth of each of the first and second children. Provision of ¥2,000,000 at the birth of each of the third and subsequent children. (Acquisition of childcare leave for one continuous week or more is a requirement for the receipt of this support.)
Lifestyle-support system	Introducing lifestyle-support system with the objective of establishing supportive environments for employees in a variety of household circumstances. Offering 30-day leaves as well as shorter working hours / flextime, in accordance with the reason. Examples of reasons: (1) truant children, (2) infertility treatment, (3) family nursing or caregiving for spouses and 1st and 2nd degree relatives of employees, and (4) receiving outpatient care at medical facilities due to disease

Note: Systems used by Group companies are different.
